

EOG Resources, Inc.
Notice of Amendments to Code of Ethics
for Senior Financial Officers

On September 26, 2018, the Board of Directors of EOG Resources, Inc., as part of its regular review of corporate governance matters, approved certain administrative and other non-substantive amendments to the EOG Resources, Inc. Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers (the “Code”).

Such amendments to the Code did not constitute or effect a waiver of application of any provision of the Code to any of the Company's Senior Financial Officers (as defined therein).

EOG RESOURCES, INC.
CODE OF ETHICS FOR SENIOR FINANCIAL OFFICERS

The Company has a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applicable to all directors and employees of the Company. The chief executive officer, the principal financial officer, the principal accounting officer and the controllers of the Company (the “Senior Financial Officers”) are bound by the provisions set forth therein relating to ethical conduct, conflicts of interest and compliance with law. In addition to the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, the Senior Financial Officers are subject to the following additional specific policies:

1. The Senior Financial Officers shall conduct themselves in an honest and ethical manner when acting for the Company, and shall avoid conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships.
2. The Senior Financial Officers are responsible for full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public communications made by the Company. Accordingly, it is the responsibility of each Senior Financial Officer promptly to bring to the attention of the Disclosure Committee any material information of which he or she may become aware that affects the disclosures made by the Company in its public filings and other public communications or otherwise assist the Disclosure Committee in fulfilling its responsibilities.
3. Each Senior Financial Officer shall promptly bring to the attention of the Disclosure Committee and the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning (a) significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the Company’s ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data or (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company’s financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.
4. Each Senior Financial Officer shall promptly bring to the attention of the General Counsel or the Chief Executive Officer and to the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning any violation of these policies, including any actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships, involving any management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company’s financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.
5. Each Senior Financial Officer shall promptly bring to the attention of the General Counsel or the Chief Executive Officer and to the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning evidence of a violation of the laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company, its subsidiaries and the operation of their businesses, by the Company, its subsidiaries or any agent thereof, or of a violation of these policies.
6. The Board of Directors shall determine, or designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate actions to be taken in the event of a violation of these policies by any of the Company’s Senior Financial Officers. Such actions shall be reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote accountability for adherence to these policies, and shall include a written notice to the individual involved that the Board of Directors has determined that there has been a violation, censure by the Board of Directors, demotion or re-assignment of the individual involved, suspension with or without pay or benefits

(as determined by the Board of Directors) and/or termination of the individual's employment. In determining what action is appropriate in a particular case, the Board of Directors or such designee shall take into account all relevant information, including the nature and severity of the violation, whether the violation was a single occurrence or repeated occurrences, whether the violation appears to have been intentional or inadvertent, whether the individual in question had been advised prior to the violation as to the proper course of action and whether or not the individual in question had committed other violations in the past.
